DEDICATION

We, the 1976 graduating seniors, would like to dedicate this year's annual to Mrs. Myrtle Franklin Johnson, the oldest living graduate of the Graettinger School. Mrs. Johnson graduated from the Graettinger School in approximately 1906 or 1907. Her graduating class consisted of ten students; eight girls and two boys.

Mrs. Johnson now lives in Sierra Madre, California and is 89 years old.

Two very significant maxims that I impart to the graduating seniors are given to us by Sophocles who said, "Wisest, they say, is he whose own mind suggests the proper course; next comes the man who accepts the good advice of another." And by the Latin poet Ovid who reminds us that "No slight advantage is a pleasing countenance."

Supt. Don Pettengill

Use "Your" Natural Resources!! William H. Danforth, the author of the "I DARE YOU" book, frequently repeats what he calls Life's Great Principle.

"Our most valuable possessions are those which can be shared without lessening; those which when shared multiply. Our least valuable possessions are those which when divided are diminished."

Today when shortages are common, I hope you seniors can develop four personal resources that multiply with use. The first is "Knowledge." Hopefully the knowledge you possess today is only a fraction of the total you will have at life's end. To make it grow it must be used and shared, for inactivity brings decay.

"Courtesy" and "Respect" only start to develop as they are used, and their use opens doors and paves streets along life's journey. The last resource is "A Smile," a highly contagious quality that can reach epidemic proportions with little effort.

I think the use of these resources that we all possess holds the key to your future success. Unlike most natural resources, these must be used rather than conserved, or they will join the lists of shortages. I hope each one of you develops a life full of these resources. Good luck!

Homecoming '75 was perhaps not victorious, but spirited. The Pirates were defeated by the Mallard Ducks, 35-17.

Pre-homecoming activities included the annual FHA Barbecue preceding the traditional Bonfire, using wood from the FFA Outhouse Smash. The most exciting part of the evening was the 1975-76 Coronation.

Other events taking place during Spirit Week were class skits. First place was taken by the senior class, and there was a Mud Stuff and Banana Eating contests, Pep Rally and Parade.

Homecoming festivities came to an end with a dance sponsored by the Student Council members. Performing that evening was "Kickin," a group from Omaha.
